Wade Gorney, DPT
Doctor of Physical Therapy
wagorney@selectmedical.com

Wade Gorney is a physical therapist at Shore Orthopaedic Physical Therapy in Cape May Court House, located at 9 Stites Avenue and managed by NovaCare. As a member of the NovaCare clinical team, Wade has successfully treated a variety of orthopedic injuries and post-surgical interventions with a special interest in running/sports injuries and maladies of the lumbar spine. Always patient-focused he continually seeks to develop more efficient avenues to superior patient outcomes, and his dedication to this task is evidenced each day.

Wade is an alumnus of the University of the Sciences in Philadelphia where he earned his Bachelor of Science and Health Sciences degree and his Doctorate of Physical Therapy. He has complemented his formal education with continuing education courses including Treatment and Cross-training of the Injured Runner, Clinical Applications of Lumbar Spine Care, and Mechanical Adaptations of the Bone, Cartilage, and Muscles to Levels of Stress.

Wade's Vision... "I believe that rehabilitation is a journey, not a process, and I consider myself fully capable of taking that journey with each of my patients. My goal is to partner with every individual in all the highs and lows of rehabilitation and empower them with knowledge and encouragement while guiding them to their ultimate goals and renewed health and vigor."
