

Meet the Physical Therapist...

Larry Justin “LJ” Georgetti, DPT

Larry Justin Georgetti is a Doctor of Physical Therapy treating patients at Shore Orthopaedic Physical Therapy in Cape May Court House, managed by NovaCare Rehabilitation. A valued new member of the clinical team LJ has noted success in the treatment of sports related injuries, post-surgical rehabilitation and chronic pain syndrome. His true expertise is demonstrated by being fully engaged in the rehabilitative process, working alongside each of his patients with compassion and encouragement to help them attain their goals with the skills in place to avoid re-injury.

LJ is a 2015 graduate of High Point University, High Point, North Carolina with a Bachelor’s Degree in Exercise Science. He earned his Doctor of Physical Therapy in 2018 from Thomas Jefferson University, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. His special interests of continuing study are to become trained and certified as a Certified Orthopedic Manual Therapist (COMT), and to specialize in the treatment of pain management.

LJ’s Vision... “My focus as a physical therapist is to provide optimal patient care by empowering my patients to achieve their goals and maximize their health and wellness. I accomplish this by connecting with my patients from day one and working directly with them to develop a comprehensive and evidence-based plan of care. Assisting my patients to realize their full potential and live an active lifestyle is my ultimate measure of success.”
